SLEEK, CLASSIC, COVETED

The legendary cars from Mercedes-Benz transcend both time and performance. Admired by car enthusiasts worldwide, Mercedes-Benz long ago set the standard for luxury and automotive excellence.

Standard Catalog of® Mercedes-Benz showcases the American-released, post-World War II offerings from the world's oldest automobile manufacturer. This impressive guide provides a year-by-year review of models, production numbers, technical specifications, VIN numbers, options and much more. In addition to a price guide, Standard Catalog of® Mercedes-Benz presents 300 color and period black-and-white photos of some of the finest cars ever built.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS:

Jim Luikens has owned more than 50 Mercedes-Benzes including a 1954 Gull Wing. He shares his wealth of Mercedes-Benz knowledge as editor of The Star, the official publication of the Mercedes-Benz Club of America (www.mbca.org).

Mary M. Hedberg is a lifelong motorsports enthusiast. As Associate Editor of The Star, she has had the chance to become very knowledgeable about the history, lore, and various models of the Mercedes-Benz brand.
